

22nd Germanic Linguistics Annual Conference
University of Iceland
May 20–22, 2016

Program

[May 13, 2016]

Friday May 20, 2016

	Session A Árnagarður 201	Session B Árnagarður 301	Session C Árnagarður 311	Session D Árnagarður 304	Session E Árnagarður 422
7.30–8.30	Conference registration in Árnagarður (first floor)
	Syntax Chair: Dorian Roehrs	Morphology Chair: Katrín Axelsdóttir	Heritage Varieties Chair: Karen Roesch	Phonology Chair: Þorgeir Sigurðsson	Historical Linguistics Chair: Guðrún Þórhallsdóttir
	Margaret Blevins & Helen Schmel (U. of Texas at Austin, U. Potsdam) The progressive aspect in Kiezdeutsch	Þorsteinn Indriðason (University of Bergen) On Bound Intensifiers in Icelandic	Nicole Dehé (University of Konstanz) The intonation of polar questions in North American Icelandic	David Fertig (University at Buffalo (SUNY)) Staying weird: Analogical change in high frequency forms	Cynthia Johnson, Guus Kroonen, Leonid Kulikov, Esther Le Mair, Sigríður Sigurðardóttir & Jóhanna Barðdal : How to Succeed in Germanic without Really Trying
8.30–10.00	Peter Hallman (University of Vienna) The German double object alternation and its consequences for the treatment of 'inherent' case	Blake Allen & Gunnar Ólafur Hansson (University of British Columbia) How to fill a paradigm in Icelandic	Frans Gregersen (The University of Copenhagen LANCHART Centre) Some issues in the investigation of Danish in the Americas	Andrew Kostakis (Indiana University) Rhotic allophony in Proto-Germanic	Michael Dunn (Uppsala University) Naming the body in Germanic: etymology and evolution
	Luke Adamson & Ava Irani (University of Pennsylvania) On the (in)extractability of nominal PP adjuncts	Kari Kinn (University of Oslo) Bare singular nouns in Middle Norwegian	Gertrud Reershemius (Aston University) Remnants of Western Yiddish in rural northwest Germany: New insights from the LCAAJ archive	Jeannette Marsh (Baylor University) The role of Gallo-Romance contact in the West Germanic Consonant Gemination	Tonya Kim Dewey, Martin Findell, Paul Heggarty, Cormac Anderson & Russell D. Gray (University of Minnesota, Morris, ...) CoBL: The Germanic test case
10.00–10.30	Coffee in Árnagarður
	Syntax Chair: Avery Andrews	Morphology Chair: Tonya Kim Dewey	Heritage Varieties Chair: Haraldur Bernharðsson	Phonology Chair: Aðalsteinn Hákonarson	Historical Linguistics Chair: Magnús Snædal
	Robert A. Cloutier (University of Amsterdam) P positions in older Dutch	Matthias Fingerhuth (University of Texas at Austin) Separable Prefix Verbs in Binnendeutsch and Swiss Standard German	Hyoun-A Joo (Penn State) Split auxiliary system in heritage German: Restructuring at the syntax-semantics interface	Colin Grant (Indiana University) The Interaction of West Germanic Gemination and Sievers' Law in Upper German	Joseph Salmons (University of Wisconsin–Madison) Linkages and West Germanic subgrouping
10.30–12.00	Jolien Scholten (UiL OTS, Utrecht University) Definitely possessive: The role of the definite article in possessive structures in eastern varieties of Dutch	Arash Farhidnia (Radboud University Nijmegen) Complex verbs in German: Univerbation, incorporation and back formation as word formation tools	Donald Reindl (University of Ljubljana) Swimming against the Tide: Slovenian Influence on Gottschee German	Thomas Purnell, Eric Raimy & Joe Salmons (University of Wisconsin-Madison) Contrastive Hierarchy Analysis of Old English Vowels	Rebecca Colleran (University of Edinburgh) Keeping it in the family: Disentangling contact and inheritance in closely related languages
	Ingunn Hreinberg Indriðadóttir & Jóhannes Gísli Jónsson (University of Iceland) Weight effects and Heavy NP Shift	Milena Šereikaitė (University of Pennsylvania) Towards a typology of Baltic lexical prefixes and Germanic particles	Zebulon Pischnotte (University of Utah Asia Campus) Colloquial speech in Bitburger German	T. A. Hall (Indiana University) Phonemic and derived glides in Middle High German	Joshua Bousquette (University of Georgia) The Perfective-Durative Contrast in Gothic: Evidence for Language Contact
12.00–13.00	Plenary Lecture in Háskólatorg HT-102 — Chair: Tonya Kim Dewey
	Kristján Árnason (University of Iceland) Internal and external effects in the linguistic history of Scandinavia: a view from Iceland
13.00–14.00	Lunch in Háskólatorg

Friday May 20, 2016 — continued

	Session A Árnagarður 201	Session B Árnagarður 301	Session C Árnagarður 311	Session D Árnagarður 304	Session E Árnagarður 422
	Syntax Chair: Ingunn Indriðadóttir	Pragmatics Chair: Richard J. Whitt	Heritage Varieties Chair: Kristín Jóhannsdóttir	Phonology Chair: David Fertig	Historical Linguistics Chair: Kevin French
	John te Velde (Oklahoma State University) Licensing V2-violations in German: prosodic remapping at the syntax- PF interface	Maria Bonner (Syddansk Universitet) Zur historischen Pragmatik der Formalität	Christine Evans (University of Wisconsin-Madison) Auf der linken Seite da: Left dislocation in Northern German	Katrin Fuchs (The University of Texas at Austin) Changes in German Vowel Length Marking in the 16th and 17th Century
14.00–16.00	Jóhannes Gísli Jónsson & Elísa Guðrún Brynjólfssdóttir (University of Iceland) V2 in a sign language	Patricia Wiley (UCLA) “Gerade nicht!” — “Eben doch”: Focus particles, information structure & interlocutor perspectives	Alexander Lorenz (University of Texas at Austin) Case Syncretism in Texas German	Franziska Kruger (Indiana University Bloomington) Fortis-lenis neutralization in Upper Saxon & its implementation in the phonological grammar	Bettelou Los (University of Edinburgh) Old English Word Orders and Discourse: the case of Ælfric
	Sonja Müller (Universität Wuppertal) Assertive outsiders: V1- and Wo- VE-clauses in German	Sarah Fagan (University of Iowa) Moving forward and its German counterpart	B. Richard Page (Penn State) Language Maintenance and Language Policy in the German- American Church	Erin Noelliste (Indiana University) Bavarian German r -Flapping: Evidence for a dialect-specific Sonority Hierarchy	Katerina Somers (Queen Mary, Univ. of London) Asyndetic verb-final clauses in Otfrid von Weissenburg’s Evangelienbuch
	Gísli Harðarson & Susanne Wurmbrand (University of Connecticut): Forging Agreement: on the relation between fake indexicals and agreement	Torsten Leuschner & Sylvia Jaworska (Ghent Univ. & Univ. of Reading): Cross-Linguistic Discourse Analysis: New Vistas for Lexical Borrowing Research	Karen Roesch (IUPUI) Documenting Dialect Death: German Dialects in Southern Indiana	Johanneke Sytsema (University of Oxford) What happened to Open Syllable Lengthening in Frisian?	Matteo Tarsi (University of Iceland) Loanwords vs. native words in Old and Middle Icelandic
16.00–16.30	Coffee in Árnagarður
	Syntax Chair: Cynthia Allen	Morphology Chair: Robert Howell	Heritage Varieties Chair: Hans Boas	Phonology Chair: Jeannette Marsh	Historical Linguistics Chair: Matteo Tarsi
	Johan Brandtler & David Håkansson (Ghent University, Uppsala University) Heading North: The syntactic status of Swedish negation	Roslyn Burns & Reem Alattas (University of California, Berkeley) Paradigm Internal vs External Motivations: The Case of Ablaut Classes in Plautdietsch	Joel Stark (University of Wisconsin-Madison) German-English Contact in Eighteenth-Century Pennsylvania: Evidence from Newspaper Advertisements		David Willis (University of Cambridge) Reconstructing focus and constituent negation in West Germanic
16.30–18.00	Christine B. Østbø Munch (Queen Maud University College) On the change from verb-initial negative imperatives to negation-initial imperatives in Norwegian	Paula Fenger (University of Connecticut) Stress is what gives you the allomorphs! Allomorphy in Dutch derivational affixes	Lisa Yager (University of Wisconsin-Madison) Last In, First Out? Exploring Case Loss in Wisconsin Heritage German	Samantha Litty (University of Wisconsin-Madison) Where’s the FON in that? The development of ‘final obstruent neutralization’ in WI German varieties	Eline Laperre (Queen Mary, University of London) Resilient preverbal negation in historical Dutch
		Jac Conradie (University of Johannesburg) Sources of Afrikaans modal particles	Lara Schwarz (Pennsylvania State University) Antecedent Preferences in Bilingual German Populations	Arjen P. Versloot & Elzbieta Adamczyk (Univ. of Amsterdam; Univ. of Wuppertal & Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznan) Apocope and i -mutation in West Germanic root nouns	Neil G. Jacobs (Ohio State University) What Yiddish loans tell us about language
18.00–19.00	Wine reception cohosted by Chargée d’Affaires of the Federal Republic of Germany Ms Diane Röhrig — in Háskólatorg (Litla-Torg)

Saturday May 21, 2016

	Session A Árnagarður 201	Session B Árnagarður 301	Session C Árnagarður 311	Session D Árnagarður 304	Session E Árnagarður 422
	Syntax Chair: Christopher Sapp	Syntax Chair: Þórhallur Eyþórsson	Heritage Varieties/Sociolinguistics Chair: Zebulon Pischotte	Phonology/Historical Linguistics Chair: Tracy A. Hall	Historical Linguistics/Sociolinguistics Chair: Ludger Zeaert
8.00–9.30	Elliott Evans & Rex Sprouse (Indiana University) Double Definiteness, Diachrony, and Danish	Marjolein Poortvliet (University of Oxford) Descriptive Perception Verbs as ‘flavoured’ Copulas: Evidence from Dutch	John Bellamy & Kristine Horner (University of Sheffield) Debating Luxembourgish The Lived Experiences of Young People in a Multilingual Context	Aðalsteinn Hákonarson (University of Iceland) The Icelandic Quantity Shift and Monosyllabic Lengthening	Lane Sorensen (Indiana U.-Bloomington) Middle Low German Conservation and Infiltration in “Die Niederdeutschen Leberreime des Johannes Junior v. J. 1601”
	Fabian Heck (University of Leipzig) The Non-Monotonic Derivation of Scandinavian Object Shift	Andrew Kraiss (University of Maryland University Colleges-Europe) The Grammatical Gender Cycle	Roslyn Burns (University of California, Berkeley) Island Hopping: Dialects in the New World Plautdietsch Speech Archipelago	Porgeir Sigurðsson (University of Iceland) Were distinctions made by accents in Old Norse?	Jacob Reis (The University of Texas at Austin) “I frog mi wos i do dua”: Analysis of Orthography in Styrian Song Lyrics
	Alexander Pfaff (CASTL/University of Tromsø) Inside and Outside the Icelandic DP: Some Notes on Adjectival Inflection	Jonas Keller (University of Zurich) Unusual Gender Assignment in the Lindisfarne and West-Saxon Gospels	Hans Boas & Todd Krause (The University of Texas at Austin) A new approach towards a systematic comparison of German-Language Islands	Gjert Kristoffersen (University of Bergen) Spreading of tonal accent in West Norwegian, categorical or gradual?	Tim William Machan (University of Notre Dame) English, Norwegian, and the Politics of Genealogy
	9.30–10.00	Coffee in Árnagarður
	Syntax Chair: Sigríður Sigurjónsdóttir	Semantics Chair: Paul Roberge	Sociolinguistics Chair: Eiríkur Rögnvaldsson	Phonology/Historical Linguistics Chair: Laura Catharine Smith	Syntax Chair: Joan Maling
10.00–11.30	Christopher D. Sapp (University of Mississippi) Sá in Old Icelandic: from demonstrative to relative	Caterina Saracco & Alberto Agnesina (Univ. of Pavia, Theol. Insti. San Gaudenzio, Novara) The conceptualization of mind, soul and heart in Old Saxon Heliand: Some help from Cognitive Linguistics	Bettina Larl (University of Innsbruck) Geolocating German on Twitter	Robert Kristof Paulsen (University of Bergen) The High, the Low, and the Ugly	Antonio Fábregas & Michael Putnam (Univ. of Tromsø; Penn State) Deriving Passives Without Passive Voice
	Edwin Ko & Quirin Würschinger (Georgetown Univ., LMU Munich) Addressing the Actuation Problem of the Icelandic New Transitive Impersonal	Carlee Arnett & Valerie Wuerz (UC Davis) A Cursory Attempt at a Network Analysis of ‘es’ in the History of German	Linda Evenstad Emilsen (Østfold University College) Contrastivity in a Norwegian dialect	Jade Jørgen Sandstedt (University of Edinburgh) Written or Sound Pattern? Disambiguating Old Norwegian Vowel Harmony	Dennis Wegner (University of Wuppertal) Deriving perfect and passive from a single form? Past participial identity in Germanic
	Jim Wood (Yale University) Reflexive Datives and Argument Structure	Jonah Rys (Ghent University) Functional and non-functional use of the ACC/DAT-alternation with German two-way prepositions.	Sverre Stausland Johnsen (University of Oslo) Dialect change and diffusion in South-East Norway	Tam Blaxter & Kari Kinn (Univ. of Cambridge, Univ. of Oslo) Broken vs. unbroken forms of the 1st sg. pronoun in Middle Norwegian	Hans-Martin Gärtner (Hungarian Academy of Sciences) Did the Valkyries Maintain Individual To-Do-Lists? Some Remarks on the Grammar and Use of Adhortatives
11.30–12.00	Poster Session in Tröð
12.00–13.00	Plenary Lecture in Háskólatorg HT-102 — Chair: Eiríkur Rögnvaldsson
	Höskuldur Þráinsson (University of Iceland) There is no “Icelandic A and B” nor “Faroese 1 and 2”
13.00–14.00	Lunch in Háskólatorg

Saturday May 21, 2016 — continued

	Session A Árnagarður 201	Session B Árnagarður 301	Session C Árnagarður 311	Session D Árnagarður 304	Session E Árnagarður 422
	Syntax Chair: Matthew Whelpton	Morphology Chair: Joseph Salmons	Sociolinguistics/SLA Chair: Carlee Arnett	Phonology/Metrics Chair: Patrick Farrugia	Syntax Chair: Jóhannes Gíslí Jónsson
14.00–16.00	Ásgrímur Angantýsson & Dianne Jonas (Univ. of Iceland, Goethe University Frankfurt) On the Syntax of Adverbial Clauses in Icelandic	Dirk Pijpops, Katrien Beuls, Freek Van de Velde (University of Leuven, Vrije Universiteit Brussel): Explaining the success of the Germanic weak suffix in the face of a transparent strong inflection	Lindsay Preseau (UC Berkeley) Acquiring a Multiethnolect: Kiezdeutsch meets the Refugee Crisis	Klaus Johan Myrvoll (University of Oslo) The prefix loss in Early Nordic: A re-examination of the metrical evidence	Eli Rugaard & Christer Johansson (University of Bergen) Do balanced bilinguals trip in the garden path?
	Sigríður Sæunn Sigurðardóttir & Þórhallur Eypórsson (Ghent University, Univ. of Iceland) Two types of Impersonalization in Icelandic	Paul Roberge (Univ. of North Carolina Chapel Hill): The Incredible Weakness of the Germanic Third Weak Verb Class	Lara Schwarz & Nora Hellmold (Pennsylvania State University) The consequences of Age of Acquisition on second language narration strategy	Douglas P.A. Simms (Southern Illinois University Edwardsville) Rognvaldr jarl Kali Kolsson's LV 1 and the Bugge-Sieversche Regel	Dorian Roehrs (University of North Texas) Adjectives are in Phrasal Positions
	Kristín Jóhannsdóttir, Michael Putnam & Volker Gast (Univ. of Akureyri, Penn State Friedrich-Schiller, University of Jena): Fine-tuning event structure: OVER-modification in Icelandic	Mary Allison, Matthew Boutilier, Robert Howell & Katerina Somers (Univ. of Wisconsin–Madison; Queen Mary, Univ. of London): Pronominal cliticization, analogy and additive morphology: The case of Old High German -mês	Donald Vosburg (The Pennsylvania State University) The Effects of Group Dynamics on Language Learning and Use in an MMORPG	Megan Hartman (University of Nebraska at Kearney) Old Norse and Old English Hypermetric Connections	Valeria Molnar (Lund University) Questions in Focus – Focus in Questions
	Gísli Rúnar Harðarson (University of Connecticut) Heads up! On DP internal movement in Icelandic	Laura Catharine Smith, Katharina Schuhmann, Charlotte Champeñois, Nicola Scherbeck (Brigham Young, Univ. of Bonn, Ball State U.): The Role of Prosody in Shaping German Plurals: A Study	Maria Grozeva (New Bulgarian University) L2/L3 Strategies in language teaching and learning	Mikael Males (University of Oslo) Semantic Typology in Old Icelandic Poetological Terminology	Federica Cognola & Roland Hinterhölzl (Ca Foscari, Venezia) High subjects, criterial positions and restrictions on wh -movement
	16.00–16.30	Coffee in Árnagarður
	Syntax Chair: Margrét Jónsdóttir	Corpus Linguistics Chair: Katerina Somers	SLA Chair: Tonya Kim Dewey	Historical Linguistics Chair: Martin Findell	Syntax Chair: John te Velde
16.30–18.00	Joan Maling & Sigríður Sigurjónsdóttir (Brandeis Univ., Univ. of Iceland) The new transitive impersonal construction in Icelandic	Bettina Larl, Claudia Posch, Gerhard Rampl, Irina Windhaber (University of Innsbruck) The Alps as a Corpus	Ashley Roccamo (University of Southern California) Measuring the effects of peer feedback on L2 German pronunciation gains	Katrín Axelsdóttir (University of Iceland) All the King's Runes	Jelke Bloem (University of Amsterdam) Are there meaning differences between verb cluster word orders?
	Einar Freyr Sigurðsson (University of Pennsylvania) Breaking down the passive/active dichotomy	Richard J. Whitt (Univ. of Nottingham): Using Corpora to Track Changing Thought Styles: Evidentiality, Epistemology, and Early Modern English	Martje Wijers (Ghent University) Path-breaking predicates: Verb complementation in Swedish as a Foreign Language.	Kevin French (University of Iceland) Representation of the Old Norse goddess name Gefjun in Icelandic manuscripts	Yana Chankova (South-West University) Direct Object Scrambling and Double Object Scrambling: Information Structural Implications
	Elisabet Engdahl & Anu Laanemets (Univ. of Gothenburg, Univ. of Copenhagen): Distinguishing impersonal and prepositional passives in Mainland Scandinavian	Christopher Tabisz (Univ. of Wisconsin-Madison): "Kurz vor Schön": Linguistic Attitudes and Perceptions of Berlinish, Magdeburgish, Leipzigish and SG		Ludger Zeevaert (The Árni Magnússon Inst. for Icelandic Studies): Differences in the use of indirect-speech constructions in manuscripts of Njáls saga	Kajsa Djärv (The University of Pennsylvania) Toward a typology of copular sentences
18.00–18.45	SGL Business Meeting in Árnagarður 301
19.30	Banquet at Bryggjan brugghús bistro & brewery at Grandagarður 8

Posters in Tröð

Dana McDaniel & Jazmyn Sylvester-Cross

(University of Southern Maine)

Wh-extraction possibilities in Germanic: The role of the language production system

Denny Berndt, Vincent DeLuca, David Miller & Jason Rothman

(University of Reading, Arctic University of Norway, Tromsø)

Remapping of Aspectual Features in Adult L2 Acquisition: Am vs. Beim in L2 German

Hans Boas, Marc Pierce & Todd Krause

(University of Texas at Austin)

A New Collaborative Interface for Online Language-Lesson Design

Judith Atzler & Guido Halder

(Washington & Jefferson College)

Welcome to Lindenstrasse: A German series for all levels and all skills

Margrét Jónsdóttir

(University of Iceland)

Icelandic Experiencer Verbs, subject case alternations, and obligatory reflexive pronoun

Mario Ruiz & Gabriel, Christoph

(Hamburg University, Johannes-Gutenberg-Universität Mainz)

VOT in Pomerano — Portuguese Bilinguals

Mary Blockley

(Univ. of Texas at Austin)

Singular indefinite pronouns in Old English and the insufficiency of case

Melody Pattison

(University of York)

Suburban and Rural Variation Between /y/ and /u/ in Achterhoeks

Shawn Nissen, Teresa Bell, Laura Catharine Smith, & Kate E. Lester

(Brigham Young University)

The Efficacy of Using Electropalatographic Biofeedback in Second Language German Instruction

Valentina Concu

(Purdue University)

Weinrich's Tense Categories of Narration and Comment in the Frankfurt Auschwitz Trials

University of Iceland campus

GLAC venue: Árnagarður, Tröð, Háskólatorg

Reykjavík Center

GLAC: University of Iceland campus, Bryggjan Restaurant

